

Cameron McRae

Non Executive Director, DTP Partners

Cameron has four decades of experience in mining and metals related industries as Chairman, Director, CEO, Project Director, and other senior roles. Cameron has led the delivery of successful greenfield and brownfield construction projects on three continents, overarching business transformations, and business improvement projects.

Cameron is Chairman of Kincora Copper, a non-executive director with Erdene Resources (an emerging gold producer) and co-principal of DTP Partners.

Cameron held senior roles in Rio Tinto over a 28-year career. He was CEO-President of Oyu Tolgoi (OT) copper-gold business in Mongolia, CEO of Richards Bay Minerals in South Africa, Managing Director of Murowa Diamonds in Zimbabwe, and Project Director for the Hail Creek Coal Mine Expansion Project in Central Queensland.

Cameron led the establishment of the OT business – Mongolia’s world-class megaproject in the Gobi Desert. OT commenced construction in 2010 with the US$6 billion Phase 1 project commissioned ahead of schedule and moved to full production during Cameron’s tenure.

At corporate level Cameron has delivered sectoral and country strategies, global technology projects, and sponsored cross-business unit collaboration projects. Cameron has broad negotiating experience closing M&A deals, key commercial transactions, and country level agreements.
