Event - general

"If you're building a career in mining, I really recommend exploring AusIMM membership. Whether you're a student, graduate, or industry leader, membership gives you access to exclusive networking, discounted professional development, and global recognition with a postnominal like MAusIMM. Just take the short quiz online to find the right grade for you—it only takes a minute."

Event – student focus

"If you're a student looking to break into mining, AusIMM membership is a no-brainer. You'll gain access to student-only events, scholarships, and discounted entry to major conferences—all while building connections through your local Student Chapter. Plus, the SAusIMM postnominal adds credibility to your CV while you're still studying. It only takes a minute to find your grade and sign up."

Event – new professional focus

"If you've recently started your career in mining, AusIMM's New Professional grade can help you get ahead. You'll join a global network of peers, gain discounted access to PD, free technical webinars, and earn the GAusIMM or AAusIMM(NP) postnominal to highlight your commitment to the profession. The New Professional Network also runs virtual and in-person events to help you connect and grow. Just take our short quiz to find your membership grade—it's quick and easy."

Event – established leaders

"If you're a senior professional, AusIMM membership is an opportunity to contribute to the sector, stay connected with peers, and access valuable resources like the Digital Library, mentoring, and Chartered Professional accreditation. The MAusIMM or FAusIMM postnominal recognises your leadership and commitment to excellence. Whether you're mentoring the next generation or influencing industry standards, AusIMM keeps you at the forefront."
