OVERVIEW

We are excited to invite you to participate in the CRIRSCO Minerals Reporting Colloquium, a collaborative event focused on Exploration, Mineral Resource and Ore/Mineral Reserve reporting, co-organised by the Committee for Mineral Reserves International Reporting Standards (CRIRSCO), the Joint Ore Reserves Committee (JORC), The Australian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy (AusIMM) and the Australian Institute of Geosciences (AIG).

The Colloquium directly follows this year's CRIRSCO AGM and will bring together industry leaders, Competent/Qualified Persons, technical experts and a diverse range of stakeholders.

THEMES

Key themes are likely to include emerging trends in Exploration, Mineral Resource and Ore Reserve reporting, the impact of changing geopolitical environments, and practical insights and lessons learned from real-world examples.

HIGHLIGHTS

Keynotes:

Keynote sessions will feature subject matter experts who will share their knowledge and experience on critical topics and emerging trends in the Mineral Resource and Ore Reserve space.

Technical Presentations:

Industry professionals will present case studies and topics relevant to Exploration, Mineral Resource and Ore/Mineral Reserve estimation and reporting. Attendees will gain valuable insights and an appreciation of minerals reporting in the mining industry.

Interactive panel session:

Hear from a diverse range of stakeholders and learn how they perceive the minerals industry, what their attitude to risk is, and how they use the reports generated by Competent/Qualified Persons and technical experts.

Networking opportunities:

The Colloquium will include ample opportunities for networking, allowing attendees to connect with peers and industry leaders, including members of CRIRSCO.

ABOUT CRIRSCO

CRIRSCO was founded in 1994 and has grown from the founding five member organisations, to an association representing fifteen national reporting organisations that are responsible for developing mineral reporting codes and guidelines in Australasia (JORC), Brazil (CBRR), Canada (CIM), Chile (Comisión Minera), Colombia (CCRR), Europe (PERC), India (NACRI), Indonesia (KOMBERS | KCMI), Kazakhstan (KAZRC), Mongolia (MPI-GM), Philippines (PMRCC), Russia (OERN), South Africa (SAMREC), Turkey (UMREK) and the USA (SME).

The aim of CRIRSCO is to contribute to earning and maintaining trust by promoting high standards of reporting of mineral deposit estimates (Mineral Resources and Mineral Reserves) and of exploration.

The CRIRSCO Template provides a framework for the CRIRSCO-aligned reporting codes and standards which provide rules and guidance on public reporting for the benefit of investors or potential investors in mining and exploration companies.
