AusIMM's New Professionals Network 2025

In 2025, the NPN will host 27 exciting events both in-person and online, tailored to the needs of young professionals.

Industry Insight Symposium Series

Emerging leaders and industry luminaries will converge to hear from a seasoned industry leader, who will discuss their career journey through the resources sector. Afterwards, attendees can participate in a Q&A, followed by relaxed networking with established professionals. This is an ideal opportunity for Partners to showcase their thought leadership, by providing an industry expert to speak about and profile their brand to a highly engaged audience seeking career growth.

Coffee Connections

The Coffee Connections series is a thoughtfully curated breakfast gathering, spearheaded by our regional NPN Ambassadors. Convened in person, New Professionals Network members can enjoy breakfast and coffee in a stylish city venue while cultivating connections and engaging in insightful discussions. While this event is strictly for new professionals, there are a number of ways partners can showcase their support of their series and increase their visibility.

Industry Connect Virtual Forums

Support an exceptional and accessible series that caters to FIFO workers and individuals in regional areas. This event showcases thought-provoking keynote addresses from respected industry leaders, delivering invaluable insights into the latest trends and challenges within the field.

For Partners, this virtual forum presents an excellent opportunity to reach individuals who might not be able to attend in person. Profile your brand and keep your organisation top of mind with new professionals through title slides, recognition in the event introduction, the opportunity to provide a keynote speaker for one of the webinars, and the option of providing a five minute address.
