Major Partners

Introduction

Australia is internationally recognised for its leadership in mining expertise, technology and innovation, underpinned by robust professional standards and a strong culture of best practice.

This capability has been shaped by decades of operating at scale in complex environments, positioning Australian organisations as trusted partners and leaders in advanced mining solutions, sustainability, safety and operational excellence.

As global demand grows for responsible resource development and critical minerals, the international resources industry increasingly turns to Australia for proven, practical and future-ready outcomes.

About AusIMM

The Australasian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy (AusIMM) is the peak body and trusted voice for professionals working in the resources sector. We advance careers, inspire leadership, uphold standards and connect communities.

Our global community is strong and expanding, with over 16,000 AusIMM members in more than 100 countries. Around a quarter of members are based outside of Australia and New Zealand, and mainly reside in the USA, Canada, Brazil, Chile, Peru, Ghana, South Africa, UK, Indonesia, China and India.

AusIMM is uniquely positioned to:

- Connect industry leaders, C-suite executives and mining professionals worldwide
- Showcase Australian mining expertise and thought leadership on the world stage
- Strengthen global industry leadership
- Collaborate with strategic partners to create shared value and expand market reach

Through an established and expanding program of international activity, alongside long-term strategic partnerships with like-minded organisations, AusIMM is actively supporting the development and growth of key global markets.

This prospectus outlines AusIMM's international engagement framework and key activities in 2026. It presents a range of international partnership opportunities for organisations seeking to strengthen their global presence, align with a respected industry leader, and engage with a highly influential professional community.

International engagement framework

AusIMM delivers its international activity through a proven and considered engagement framework that has been developed to support our sustainable growth, deepen market presence, and strengthen our global reputation, that enhances the value of our long-term partnerships.

The engagement framework encompasses four tiers:

COMMUNITY

Local professional presence through AusIMM members and international representatives, offering professional development and fostering senior relationships.

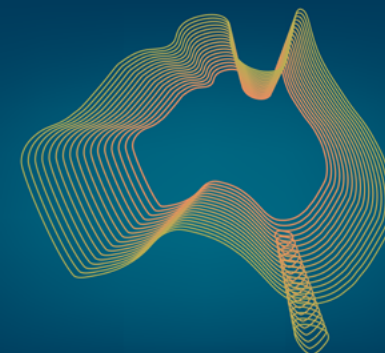

ROADSHOW

Focuses on market consultation, awareness and stakeholder engagement to understand opportunities and alignment.

SHOWCASE

Delivers structured senior engagement, thought leadership and professional development activation in priority markets.

FLAGSHIP: AUSTRALIAN MINING WEEK

Represents the highest level of engagement with sustained visibility across a multi-day international leadership platform.

Partnership opportunities

We invite companies to partner with AusIMM across its 2026 international program, featuring two high-profile opportunities to align your brand with a highly respected industry peak body for resources professionals.

The program includes the Australian Mining Showcase in Chile (June 2026) and Australian Mining Week in London (October 2026), supported by year-round brand exposure and content amplification to international audiences.

International Partners benefit from:

UNPARALLELED BRAND ALIGNMENT

Position your organisation alongside AusIMM's global leadership.

EXECUTIVE-LEVEL ACCESS

Directly engage with decision-makers from major mining service and finance companies.

INFLUENCE THE FUTURE

Contribute to critical discussions on clean energy, critical minerals, innovation, and industry trust.

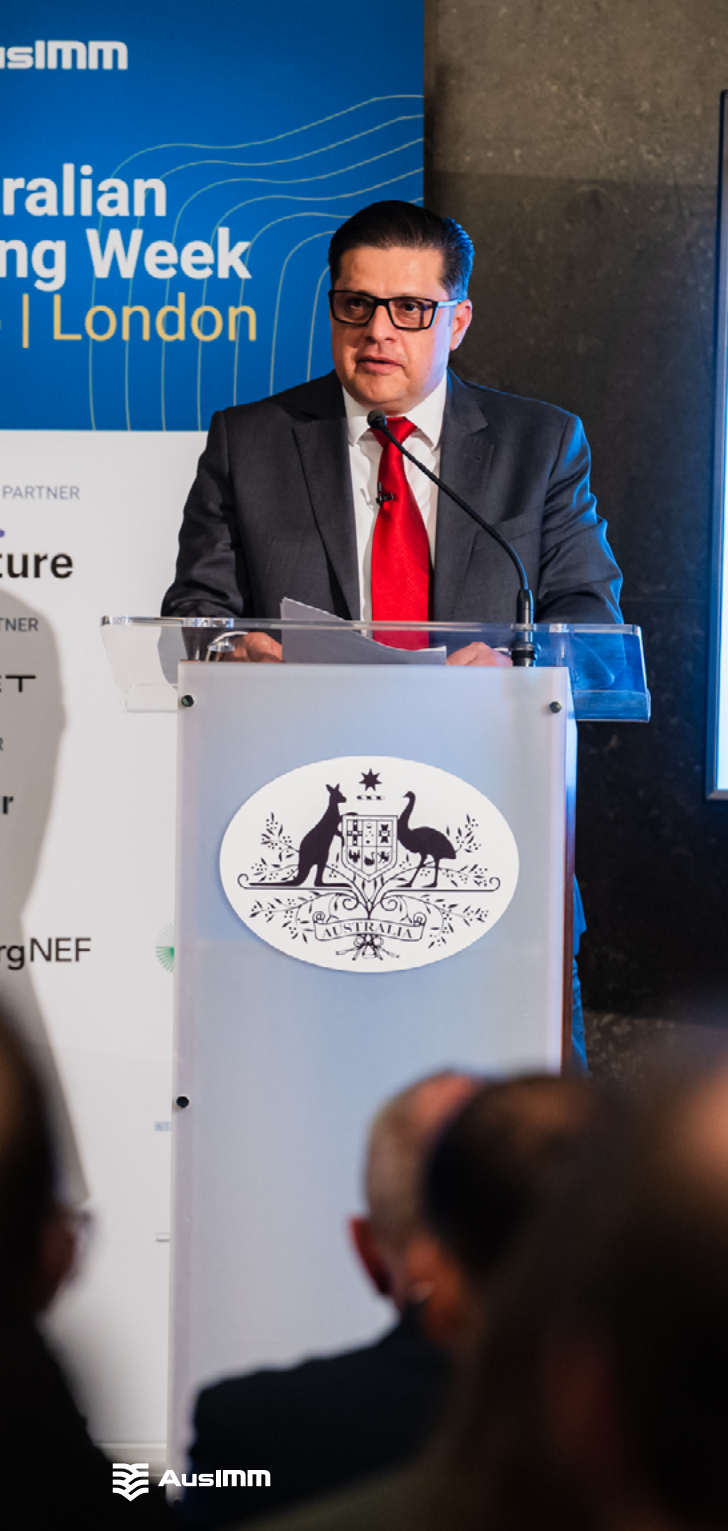

GLOBAL REACH

Be part of expanded program of events and activity driving reach, profile and engagement across key international markets.

YEAR-ROUND EXPOSURE

Align your brand across a series of international events, global content program and thought leadership.

Key international activities in 2026

Australian Mining Showcase – Chile (June 2026)

The Australian Mining Showcase focuses on senior engagement, thought leadership, professional development activation and growth opportunities for the Latin American market.

AusIMM Global Mining Leaders Roundtable and Networking Reception

Santiago, Chile | 4 June 2026

Convening senior industry executives and stakeholders, this invitation-only event provides an intimate setting for focused discussions on market insights, emerging trends and future opportunities. The event concludes with a networking reception to drive further discussion and engagement among guests.

This event is hosted by our International Partner, Accenture.

AusIMM Future Mining Trends Forum and Networking Reception

Santiago, Chile | 5 June 2026

Through a lively and robust panel discussion, leading local experts will share insights on how mining organisations are responding to:

- Rising or changing ESG expectations, including tailings and water management
- Workforce capability, skills shortages and early-career readiness.

These forums will draw an influential audience including senior practitioners, technical decision-makers and organisational leaders from across the region. The event includes a networking reception to facilitate ongoing engagement and opportunities for connection.

The forum is presented in partnership with Austrade.

Australian Mining Week – London (October 2026)

Australian Mining Week is AusIMM's flagship international leadership platform convening senior industry leaders, partners and key stakeholders through a series of high-level forums and curated engagements.

AusIMM Global Mining Leaders Lunch

London | 12 October 2026

The event connects a select group of influential leaders and senior executives from across the industry for an intimate and exclusive roundtable discussion on the latest trends and challenges shaping the industry.

This event is presented in partnership with BloombergNEF.

ERM Roundtable Breakfast

London | 13 October 2026

An exclusive, invitation only breakfast featuring a special guest speaker, bringing together senior leaders and executives from mining and finance to explore the future of sustainability in an increasingly volatile world.

This event is presented in partnership with ERM.

Thought Leadership Series

London | 13 October 2026 | Australia House

Our successful Thought Leadership Series continues to set the bar for meaningful industry engagement across some of the most pressing topics facing the mining sector today. With a global focus, this London edition will bring together an esteemed panel of senior C-suite executives and finance leaders to explore the future of the industry.

Following the panel discussion, a networking reception provides opportunities to open conversations and deepen connections with key players in the global market.

The Australia – Europe Intersection: Aligning Industry and Investment to Access Global Markets

London | 14 October 2026 | Accenture London

This session explores how Australia and Europe are aligning capital, capability and industrial strategy in a competitive global landscape.

Featuring keynote insights and targeted industry showcases, it highlights practical linkages between Australia's mining and METS strengths and key European sectors—energy, automotive and EVs, defence and advanced manufacturing—demonstrating real-world investment opportunities and value chain partnerships.

Followed by a networking lunch.

This event is hosted by our International Partner, Accenture.

Critical Minerals Forum

London | 14 October 2026 | Accenture London

This forum convenes investors, industry and advisors to assess how Australia can scale and compete in global critical minerals markets.

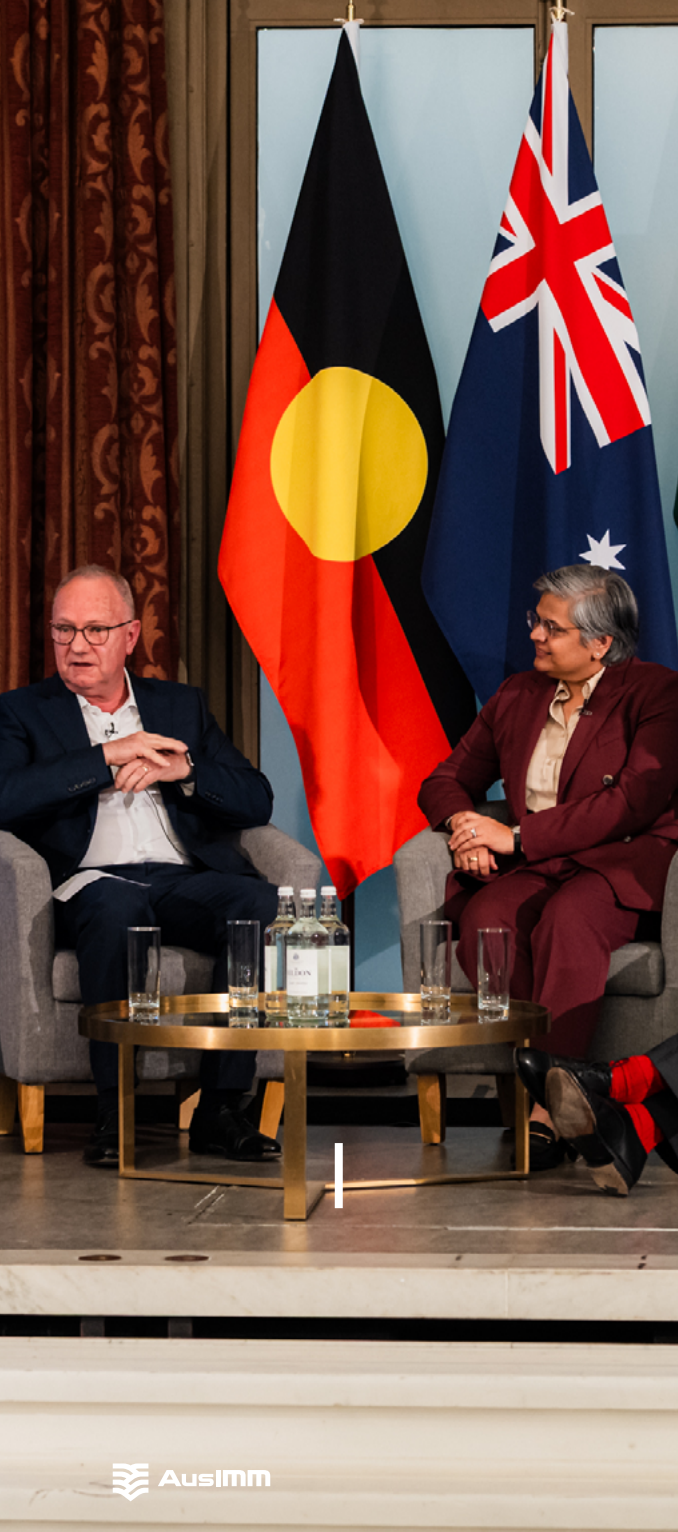

Combining strategic insights with practical investment considerations, the forum moves from global demand and investor expectations to Australia's competitive position, policy settings and financing pathways - highlighting the conditions required to unlock long-term capital.

Including keynote insights and focused panel discussions, it brings together industry and capital market perspectives to identify opportunities across resources, energy transition, manufacturing and supply chain resilience.

Followed by networking drinks to close.

This event is hosted by our International Partner, Accenture.

Year-round brand visibility

Alongside the premium brand exposure and high-value engagement opportunities delivered through each of the high-profile activities, International Partners will receive a curated suite of annual benefits. These are strategically designed to elevate your brand leadership and expand influence with our growing international audiences beyond key event periods.

Global content program

International Partners can showcase their global leadership or innovation by providing articles, reports and case studies to be published within the international section of the AusIMM website, with amplification across AusIMM's social media channels and newsletters.

Our new quarterly international e-newsletter will showcase global insights, innovation and member opportunities. Each international edition will include partner logos.

Website

The AusIMM website will feature our international activity with opportunities to showcase International Partner content and support throughout the year.
